DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

ART REJECTION:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fierro et al(Fierro) for the reasons of record as discussed in the previous office action.

REMARKS:

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 12/29/00 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant is asserting that Fierro does not read on the claimed subject matter because the test is not provided at one or more selected notification appliances. But the examiner deems that Fierro does read on the claims as presently stated because the claims do not adequately recite the intended limitation of the term "selected". It appears that the applicant intended the term selected to mean that certain designated appliance of the whole are tested while others are not. As it presently reads, the term selected could very well mean all of the appliances since all of them could very well be selected. The examiner will give further consideration if selected is recited in more clearer terms, but at this time the examiner deems that Fierro reads on the claimed subject matter.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
